Allah Loves When We Pray Together

Allah Loves When We Pray Together

Fill in the blanks:

Choices: BILAL JAMAAT ADHAAN

1. Praying with others as a group is called praying in j_____
2. Next time when you hear the call for prayer, which is called the a_____, think about the first person who ever recited it.
3. This special man's name was B_____. The Prophet Muhammad (s) liked him a lot because he was a very good person.

Read, and then write your own answer on the blank lines:

4. When we pray together, we are all different people. We may look different on the outside, but we are the same on the inside. Allah sees all humans as being the same on the inside. We are all trying to be good. We all love Allah. We are the same on the inside. I like to show my love for Allah by:

Read, and fill in the blanks:

Choices: KAABA QURAN

5. When we pray, we show that we love Allah. Allah loves each one of us too. Allah says in His Holy book called the Q_____ that He made us different kinds of people so that we can get to know each other. Allah likes it when we get to know each other and respect each other's differences. He also likes when we become friends over some good things we like to do, like prayer.

6. No matter what colour we are, what languages we speak, what kind of toys we have or how big or small our home is, Allah loves us all in the same way. We all have the same love and goodness inside.

7. One way to see how we all share the goodness inside us and how we can love Allah together, is thinking about how Allah likes us to pray in the same way. No matter where we are in the world, all Muslims pray in the same way towards the black building called the K_____.

Choices: RUKU ARABIC

8. We all pray in one language, called A_____. We all do the same parts of prayer like bending over in R_____. We all say the same words.

9. Allah loves it even more when we pray in a group. When we pray in a group, we are doing the same words and actions all at the same time. How amazing is that?!

10. When we pray in a group, we are standing together side-by-side at the same level as each other. No one is better than another person because of their clothes or size or job or language or the colour of their hair or skin. These things are interesting, but these different outside things do not make one person better than another. Only how good we are is what makes us better. Praying together should always remind us of that.

11. Allah loves it when we pray with other people in a group. We can do this at the masjid. We can even pray together with the people in our home.

12. Did you know that Allah gives us lots of points when we pray? Allah gives us even more points when we pray in a group too! That's how much He loves it when people join together.

13. When we pray as a group, Allah gives us a whole bunch of bonus points! Prophet Muhammad (peace be upon him) told us some numbers about how many bonus points we can get! He said for that for each rakaat we pray in jamaat, we get the points for a whole bunch of entire prayers! If two people pray in jamaat, they get points for 150 WHOLE prayers for each rakaat! Allah is so Kind!

14. Draw a picture of you praying with friends!

A large, empty rectangular box with a black border, intended for a drawing. The bottom right corner of the box is folded over, creating a triangular flap.

Math Time!

15. Fill in the missing numbers in the table below.

Let's do some math! On left side, add 1 to the previous number. On the right side, multiply the previous number by 2, or add it to itself. (Note: Remember, one rakaat is one set of actions from qiyam to sujood or tashah-hud, so for example, Fajr prayer has 2 rakaat.) See how praying with more people gives more points!

Number of People Praying Together (+1)	How many prayers are counted for points for 1 Rakaat (x2)
3	600
4	1, 200
5
	4, 800
7
8	19, 200
	38, 400
10
11 or more	Only Allah knows the big number!
