

This week in class, teacher should read aloud whichever Reader from previous Majlis lessons needs the most review.

The other previous readers should continue to be read at home for 5 minutes daily, but this time the parent/caregiver should not be reading to the child, rather the child should be reading the booklets as independently as possible to the adult.